

Announcing Canada's National Junior Team

Rowing Canada Aviron is pleased to announce that the following athletes are named to Canada's 2011 Junior World Rowing Championship team. The 2011 World Rowing Junior Championships will be held in Eton, Great Britain, August 4 to 7, 2011 and serves as a test event for the 2012 Olympic rowing regatta.

"After a national selection process and recent time trials in Welland, Ontario, we are confident that this group of young athletes will represent the team and the country very well," said Chuck McDiarmid, Rowing Canada Aviron High Performance Development Coordinator.

Rowing Canada Aviron's team will depart for a training camp in Great Britain on July 24th 2011

JW2x : junior women's double

Anna Ionson - South Niagara Rowing Club
Erin Snelgrove - St. Catharines Rowing Club

JM4-: junior men's four

Christopher Marshall - Brockville Rowing Club
Lance Brazeau - Brockville Rowing Club
Colin Schaap - St Georges RC
Gareth Lindstrom - Vancouver College RC

JW4- : junior women's four

Catherine Multari - South Niagara Rowing Club
Claire Vannelli - Brentwood College RC
Marissa Kump - St. Catharines Rowing Club
Aleda Kawalek - South Niagara Rowing Club

JM Sculling program

The following athletes have been selected to undergo further evaluation for the 2011 Junior Team. Crew assignments have yet to be determined and will be announced pending further evaluation.

Martin Barakso - Brentwood College RC
Stefano Belfiore - Vancouver College RC
Matthew Coppola - St. Catharines Rowing Club
Aleksander Malowany - Upper Canada College Rowing Club

Coaching staff:

Women
Phil Marshall
Paul Beedling
Men
John Wetzstein
John Ruscitti